PART 1: DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITIES AND PRIVILEGES CONFERRED IN THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

1.1 Introduction

- Obligations
- 1.1.1 According to international law and practice, persons to whom immunity from jurisdiction of the host country's courts is extended are nevertheless obliged, according to the Vienna Conventions and the United Nations Conventions, to respect those laws. The Convention provides furthermore that all official business with the receiving State entrusted to the mission by the sending State shall be conducted with or through the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the receiving State, unless an official arrangement is otherwise in place.
- 1.1.2 As is recognised internationally, diplomatic immunity and inviolability is based on the principle that duly accredited members of diplomatic and international communities must be able to pursue their official duties free from harassment and possible intimidation and without impediment to the performance of those duties. Immunity and inviolability therefore, is not a licence for misconduct of any kind but is, in fact, intended to benefit the functioning of the diplomatic mission or an international organisation, and not for the personal benefit of individual members. Consequently, the Department of International Relations and Cooperation looks to heads of diplomatic missions and accredited international organisations to advise members of their staff, as well as family members who enjoy immunity and inviolability, on their duty to respect the laws and regulations of the Republic of South Africa.

1.1.3 Whilst a foreign representative with proper identification may not be arrested or detained, the authorities have a duty to ensure the safety and welfare of the general public, including other foreign representatives, and to take reasonable steps to ensure this. It is incumbent on persons conferred with immunity and privileges to produce valid identity documents issued by the Department of International Relations and Cooperation at all times, to verify their residency status in the Republic of South Africa.

Scope of Application

1.1.4 States apply the provisions of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations of 1961 in two broad categories according to Article 47; namely the equal treatment of States in terms of Article 47(1) and the reciprocal treatment of States pursuant to Article 47(2). The Convention is incorporated into South African domestic law as Schedule I to the Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act, 2001 (Act No 37 of 2001) and regulates a diplomat's entitlement to immunities, inviolability, privileges and exemptions. Therefore the Convention has the force of law in the Republic of South Africa pursuant to section 2(1) of the Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act, 2001 (Act No 37 of 2001).

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND COOPERATION

South African nationals and South African citizens with dual citizenship as well as persons with Permanent Resident status in the Republic employed by International Organisations as officials qualify only for functional immunity from words spoken and acts performed on behalf of the relevant International Organisation, and no privileges or exemptions.

1.1.5 Reciprocity ensures that a mission and mission personnel of a particular sending State and receiving State are accorded similar treatment in the conferral of diplomatic privileges. Immunity and inviolability on the other hand are non-negotiable and laid down by the Vienna and UN Conventions for different levels of accreditation.

1.1.6 This policy is applicable to the three spheres of Government responsible for the management of diplomatic privileges, immunity and inviolability in the Republic of South Africa in terms of applicable legislation and approved funding. Therefore this policy excludes arbitrary decisions by the Department when regulating the diplomatic community. It therefore implies that the relevant Government institutions will have to approve any amendment to this policy affecting their area of responsibility.

1.1.6 The provisions contained in this policy is therefore the only basis on which the Department is authorised to apply reciprocity to ensure that

South African diplomats abroad are receiving the same treatment provided for in this policy regulating foreign diplomats in the Republic.

- 1.1.8 This policy is applicable to accredited diplomatic missions, consular posts, international organisation offices and their representatives accredited to the Republic of South Africa. It is not applicable to South African diplomats stationed abroad when sojourning in the Republic, or returning home after a term of duty abroad.

Mandates and Authorisation

- ◆ Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996
- ◆ The Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act, 2001 (Act No 37 of 2001) as amended
- ◆ Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, 1961
- ◆ Convention on the Immunities and Privileges of the United Nations and its Specialised Agencies of 1947

1.3 Appointments and Accreditation

Appointment of a Head of a Diplomatic Mission

1.3.1 The Branch: State Protocol is processing the request for agrément for the President to approve the appointment of a foreign Head of a Diplomatic Mission as specified in Section 84(2)(h) of the Constitution. The Head of Mission does not enter the Republic prior to the granting of agrément.

Arrival of a newly appointed Head of a Diplomatic Mission

1.3.2 On first arrival in the Republic of South Africa, a newly appointed Head of a Diplomatic Mission will be met at the Oliver Tambo International Airport by the Chief of State Protocol or, in his absence, by his / her representative.

- Credential Ceremony
- 1.3.3 As soon as possible after arrival the Head of a Diplomatic Mission hands to the Chief of State Protocol a copy of his/her Credentials consisting of the Letter of Credence (Ambassadors) or the Letter of Commission (High Commissioners) and the Letter of Recall of his/her predecessor. State Protocol thereupon approaches the Presidency to arrange for a ceremony for the presentation of the credentials to the President. The designated Head of a Diplomatic Mission may not undertake official duties prior to handing over his/her Credentials issued by the Head of the sending State to the President.

1.3.6 Article 13 of the Convention stating that provisional admission may be granted pending the delivery of an exequatur, is not applied by the Republic of South Africa as a receiving State. Therefore, designated Heads of Consular Posts should not proceed to take up duties in the Republic of South Africa prior to the President issuing an exequatur. Accreditation with the Department is similarly subject to an exequatur.

Appointment of the Head of an Honorary Consular Post

Upon confirmation of the appointment (e.g. Commission of Appointment) by the sending State, an exequatur is issued by the President.

- 1.12.3 Members of diplomatic missions, consular posts and international organisation offices are required to keep their diplomatic identity document issued by the Department of International Relations and Cooperation (formerly the Department of Foreign Affairs), with them at all times and to present it upon request to law enforcement agents and financial institutions. The document verifies the legal status of foreign representatives and transferred officials.
- 1.12.4 In relation to traffic violations, the Department holds the view that as far as consular officers are concerned, driving a motor vehicle per se does not regularly fall within the definition of consular functions covered by functional immunity, as defined in Article 43 of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, 1963. This is also applicable to heads of consular posts.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND COOPERATION

- 1.12.5 Members of diplomatic missions, consular posts and international organisation offices transgressing the South African Road Traffic Act, 1996 (Act No. 93 of 1996) and Road Traffic Regulations, or any subsequent amended Road Traffic Act, shall be prevented from driving by law enforcement agents if he/she is a danger to other road users or to him or herself.
- 1.12.6 The local law enforcement authorities are dealing harshly with traffic offenders in order to reduce the high level of accidents on South African roads. All personnel attached to diplomatic missions, including those who enjoy diplomatic immunity, are therefore expected not to abuse such immunity when driving. The Department views transgressions of the South African Road Code and Traffic Regulations in an extremely serious light, especially where alcohol is a contributing factor.
- 1.12.7 In such cases the Department may request the withdrawal of the offender even though it may be a first offence, especially where transgressions are associated with reckless driving, violent behavior, alcohol and/or drug abuse and where this leads to injury or death to third parties. In the event of non-compliance to withdraw an offender within a specified timeframe, the Department will no longer recognize the offender as a diplomatic agent and de-register the person from the Departmental records. Law enforcement will accordingly be informed.

Driving under the influence

1.12.8 For a second, serious traffic offence, the Department will automatically request the withdrawal of the offender, or de-register the person. The Department may also, where extremely grave transgressions have occurred, resort to declare the offender persona non grata and/or request that the offender's immunity be withdrawn to be brought before a court to stand trial.

1.12.9 Drivers should therefore familiarise themselves with the stipulations of the relevant traffic regulations before venturing on South African roads. A brief synopsis of the most important elements of the regulations are as follows:

- (a) Driving under the influence of drugs or alcohol is considered a very serious offence in South Africa. Mission personnel should acquaint themselves with the legal alcohol limit allowed when driving a motor vehicle.
- (b) Should Mission personnel refuse to be subjected to a blood or breath alcohol test, the Department of International Relations and Cooperation may view such a refusal as a possible transgression of the Republic's drinking and driving laws and reserves the right to take further action.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND COOPERATION

- Speed Limits
- 1.12.10 Prescribed speed limits must be observed at all times and sufficient time must be allowed when planning appointments to avoid speeding.
- 1.12.11 Mission staff should at all times cooperate with law enforcement agents when caught speeding and are required to give their full cooperation to local law enforcement agents and present their certificates of identity issued by the Department, for verification purposes.
- Distances between motor vehicles
- 1.12.12 Guidelines for following distances between vehicles must be adhered to.
- Overtaking of vehicles
- 1.12.13 Overtaking of vehicles where it is not permitted, i.e. a solid single white line or double white lines between lanes of traffic travelling in the opposite direction, or approaching any spot where the view is restricted to such an extent that overtaking could be hazardous to traffic approaching from the opposite direction.
- Traffic Lights and other road signals
- 1.12.14 Traffic lights, stop signs and other road signals should be respected and obeyed at all times. Numerous serious traffic accidents are caused annually as a result of drivers who ignore red traffic lights and stop signs at intersections.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND COOPERATION

- Pedestrians 1.12.15 Care should be taken to observe pedestrians on roads in general (some 45% of all fatal accidents on South African roads involve pedestrians). Utmost caution is therefore called for by drivers to assist pedestrians to safely use and cross roads in the urban areas, the countryside and on highways.
- Seat Belts 1.12.16 Seat belts should be worn when the vehicle is in motion, including at the rear of the vehicle where this is provided.
- Accidents 1.12.17 Procedures following an accident involving a vehicle
- (a) Accidents must first be reported to the South African Police Service and then to the Branch: State Protocol of the Department. Notification should be by means of a Note Verbale together with a copy of the police report or the case number.
 - (b) Where a vehicle is declared a write-off or damaged beyond economical repair, a detailed report from the insurance company in which it is clearly stated that the vehicle is a write-off or damaged beyond repair must be submitted as well as a copy of the Bill of Entry.
 - (c) Where motor vehicles are involved in accidents and to be sold or otherwise disposed of, pro-rata import duties and value-added tax are payable on the salvage value. A copy of the receipt of the duty paid must be furnished to enable the Department to de-register the vehicle from the Department's records. The cancellation certificate should be obtained from the City of Tshwane licensing department.

- (d) Alternatively a representative may elect to store the wreck of his/her vehicle and not dispose of it until the end of the prescribed two year ownership period, when no customs duty or VAT will be payable upon presentation of a storage certificate issued by the Mission.
- (e) A replacement vehicle may not be purchased or imported duty or tax free during the storage period of the wreck, depending on the vehicle quota already utilized by the representative.

Theft

- 1.12.18 In cases of irretrievable loss through theft or damaged beyond repair through accident, a replacement motor vehicle may be purchased duty and tax free, subject to payment of pro-rata duties or taxes.
- 1.12.19 The South African Police Vehicle Theft Unit applies advance technology for the investigation of stolen and/or missing vehicles, which is also available to the diplomatic community.
- 1.12.20 In cases of theft/hijacking, the theft must be reported to the DPU

Police Vehicle Theft Unit in writing through the DPU, if a vehicle which has been reported stolen or missing was subsequently found, irrespective of who found it or in which country. Failure to do so would have serious implications for all parties concerned.

PART 4: IMMUNITY DISPUTES IN THE RSA

4.1 Introduction

- Obligations
- 4.1.1 Confirmation of immunity status to an affected party in dispute with the diplomatic and international communities accredited with the Department, shall be affected upon request, through a legal certificate according to section 9(3) of the Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act, 2001 (Act No. 37 of 2001) as amended issued by the Chief of State Protocol on behalf of the Director-General of International Relations and Cooperation.
- 4.1.2 It is important that disputes involving the diplomatic community are dealt with professionally at all levels in the Department. It would therefore require that the bilateral or multilateral business unit facilitate an environment where an amicable settlement could be considered between the affected parties, prior to the Branch: State Protocol applying remedies according to international diplomatic practice, or escalating it to the highest political office and the legal domain, to apply international law remedies.
- 4.1.3 Immunity disputes often continue ad infinitum where no milestones are introduced to manage the process and communicate the outcomes to complainants. A set of procedures with timelines is therefore necessary to ensure predictability and reliability in the management of such disputes

Scope of Application Part 4

4.1.4 Part 4 of the policy will be applied to all immunity disputes involving foreign representation in South Africa, with the exception of disputes concerning locally recruited personnel (LRP) employed by foreign missions in South Africa, which is dealt with in Part 5 of the policy.

4.1.5 Part 4 of the policy deals firstly with processes for disputes in civil cases and secondly with processes for criminal incidents committed against and by persons conferred with immunity.

Objectives

4.1.6 To institute a framework for a reliable, predictable and transparent management system to address disputes involving the accredited diplomatic and international communities in South Africa.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND COOPERATION

Mandates and Authorisation

- 4.1.7 Part 4 of the policy is mandated by:

 - 4.1.7.2 Foreign States Immunities Act, 1981 (Act 87 of 1981)

Application of process The following processes should be applied to Missions as well as persons conferred with full diplomatic immunity when serving the referral document (“the referral form”) in terms of which the dispute is referred to the CCMA:

(a) Step 1: Referral of the dispute to the CCMA

The complainant should refer the dispute directly to the CCMA using the prescribed form customised by the CCMA for persons employed by Missions in the RSA, indicating the nature of the dispute as envisaged by the applicable labour legislation without, at this stage, having to submit proof that the referral form has been served on the Mission.

(b) Step 2: Statement on the Dispute

CCMA shall take down a statement from the complainant and submit it to the Department with the referral form in the prescribed formatting to be presented to the Mission.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND COOPERATION

(c) Step 3: Serving of the referral form on the Mission

The Department through its Directorate: Immunities and Privileges will ensure that the referral form with the statement is properly served on the Mission, subsequent to discussions with the relevant bilateral/multilateral business unit, within a set timeframe to institute proceedings.

(d) Step 4: Protocol puts diplomatic pressure on the Mission

Upon receipt of the referral form from the CCMA, the Director: Immunities and Privileges in consultation with the relevant bilateral/multilateral counterpart of the Department shall call in the Deputy Head of the relevant Mission for consultations and present a Diplomatic Note containing the referral form and the statement of the complainant.

In the Diplomatic Note, Protocol shall formally bring the dispute to the attention of the Mission with a request to do everything reasonably possible to resolve the dispute in compliance with the law, and set a timeframe for resolving the matter. The CCMA and the relevant bilateral/multilateral business units will be kept informed.

In the event of non-compliance by the Mission, the matter will be escalated to the Chief of State Protocol when a second and final Note Verbale is handed over personally to the Head of the Mission.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND COOPERATION

5.3 The CCMA resolves the dispute by way of conciliation and / or arbitration

CCMA schedules a hearing

The CCMA will schedule the dispute for a hearing, as the case may be. The service of all documents, including the necessary notifications, relating to the dispute shall thereafter be served on the Mission by way of registered post, facsimile transmission or electronic mail.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND COOPERATION

5.4 The CCMA issues an award after having determined the Dispute

(b) Step 2: the CCMA forwards a copy of the award to Protocol

If the commissioner has issued an award in favour of the complainant in terms of which the Mission is required to comply therewith and perform a positive act (e.g. reinstatement, payment of compensation, severance, etc.) then the CCMA shall forward a copy of the award to Protocol.

5.5 Default arbitration awards
